Nancy Wynne Is Proud of the Athletic Prowess of Philadelphians at Palm Beach—She Comments on Various Happenings in Society

THERE seems to be much excitement in Palm Beach these days over baseball, and a crowd of Philadelphia men have gathered quite a swift team, and I am proud to say the Philadelphia team has twice beaten New York's nine, the second game being held on the Polipiana diamond on Sunday afternoon.

Did you know that Eleanor Long-streth and her husband are back from the West? Captain Shaine is to be stationed at Fort Meyer, near Washington, and so they will move there, leaving the present Eleanor is stopping at the Rittenhouse and all of her friends are vying with each other to see her and give her a good time.

I WAS interested to hear of Dorothy Folwell's marriage on Saturday in Oak Lane to Charles Bromley. You remember she was Miss Wilkeson's sister. Mrs. Caleb Fox, Jr. Her first husband died a couple of years ago. Mr. Bromley was married before. His wife was Miss Brooks, a sister of Mrs. Helen Brooks, who is engaged to Dorothy Wilson. They expect to sail for Europe next Saturday for their wedding trip.

AND, by the way, speaking of wedding trips, I saw Mrs. Charles Young in the street the other day looking very well, having returned a few days before from her wedding trip. They went South and are now home again and living with Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. Dwight Young, in the city. Mrs. Young was Miss Mary Coates, and her marriage took place the 24th of January. When I saw her she was wearing a very smart three-quarter length, long very well, having returned a few days before from her wedding trip.

ALONG THE MAIN LINE Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Colwell, Pennsylvania road, left on Saturday for Montreal, Canada, where they will spend a few days with Mr. Colwell's brother, Mr. Louis Colwell. They will then journey westward, stopping in Arizona and other western places of interest, including a motor trip through California, returning home in a month or six weeks.

DELAWARE COUNTY The musical clubs of the University of Pennsylvania gave a concert, followed by a dance, at the Media Armory on Saturday evening for the benefit of the Media Hospital. The affair was in charge of Mrs. James Lord Higby.

MISS MARIAN ALMY entertained some of her friends at her home on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Balch entertained at a dance at their home on West Chester avenue, on Saturday evening.

MISS FLORENCE CLEMENT, of Baltimore, has been visiting Miss Henrietta Bryan. Mrs. John A. McKenna has returned from Atlantic City. Mr. Howard W. Reed has been spending some time at Atlantic City.

MISS MARY OF MR. C. D. TOWERS Wedding to Take Place in Trinity Chapel, Swarthmore, This Evening The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Morley, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Morley, of Rose Valley, and Mr. Charles D. Towers, of Jacksonville, Fla., will take place this evening at 8 o'clock, at Trinity Chapel, Swarthmore. The bride, attired in a white satin gown and tulle veil, will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Sylvanus Griswold Morley, and will be attended by her sister, Miss Eleanor Morley, as maid of honor, and poodle bloomers. The bridegroom will wear pink satin and white tulle. The bride's sister, Miss Sarah Morley Fussell, dressed in blue organdie, and Miss Mary Eleanor Fussell, in yellow organdie, will act as flower girls. Their brother, Master Henry Moore Fussell, Jr., will be ring bearer, and will wear a green organza of honor and poodle bloomers. The bridegroom will have his brother, Mr. Robert Sheffield Towers, as best man, and his ushers will be Mr. Henry M. Fussell, Mr. Harold Irving, Mr. John Minten, of Rose Valley, and Mr. Clarence Eugene Myers. A small reception for the families will follow the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore Fussell, in Swarthmore. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Towers will live in Jacksonville, Fla., where the bridegroom practices law. The bride is the daughter of the late Professor Morley, of the Pennsylvania Military College, Chester.
